

Name Winners in Saturday's Five Drawings Here

All five prizes were claimed Saturday at the big double drawing. The first $100 prize went to Mrs. L. M. McCarter and the second $100 prize was won by Earl Lipe.

Third prize which was $25 went to Alvin Perkins, and the fourth $25 prize was claimed by Mrs. James H. Scott.

Fifth prize of $75 went to Mrs. Jack London. This was the $25 consolation prize which was not claimed on the last day the drawing was held. This ran the total of the consolation prize up to $50 and then when the Saturday Memorial Day drawings were called off the prize was topped another $25 to make it total $75.

Roland Black, chamber of commerce executive secretary, said the prizes would be the same as usual next Saturday. The first prize will be $100 and the next two prizes $25 each. The third or consolation prize will be drawn for one time and if the holder of the winning ticket is not present the prize will be doubled for the next Saturday.

Sister of Miss Richardson Dies In Canada May 31

Mrs. O. P. Richardson Ogilvie, sister of Miss M. Moss Richardson, died with a heart attack at her home in Ottawa, Canada, May 31, at the age of 84.

Mrs. Ogilvie has visited her sister in Canyon. Being librarian of the Department of Mines of the Canadian Government for 25 years, she found much congeniality in the college library; an avid stamp collector, she located fellow-fans here with whom she exchanged stamps. She left a valuable collection.

Mrs. Ogilvie, a native Texan, was reared in Paris, Texas, where she taught music and was an active social leader for years before her marriage to William Ogilvie. Mr. Ogilvie was a gold miner in Alaska, where she met him while on a visit to her brother, W. P. Richardson, an army officer in charge of American interests in Alaska. Mr. Ogilvie was governor of the North West Territories of Canada and wrote a book about his experiences in Alaska which he published while living in Paris.

Commissioners To Start Equalization At Today's Session

Ray Thomas and Milton Crow of South Amarillo appeared before the Commissioners Court Monday, insisting that the county be surveyed for appraisal of all property for taxable purposes.

Commissioner Charles Johnson moved that the Burgess bid of $500 to do the work be accepted for a survey which would apply to the 1954 tax rolls. There was no second to the motion, and therefore the motion died.

The court will start to work equalizing taxes today, according to plans adopted by the court.

Due to the fact that few citizens read the article in the Amarillo Globe-Times last Wednesday, The News was requested by members of the Commissioners Court to repeat it in this issue.

Government May Reduce Acreage Of 1954 Wheat

It seems to be reasonably certain at this time that the Secretary of Agriculture will call for a reduction in wheat acreage this fall.

If this is done, a wheat acreage allotment will be set for each farm in Randall county where wheat was seeded for harvest in either of the year 1951, 1952, or 1953.

On farms where no wheat was seeded for the harvest of either of these years no allotment will be set except in cases where the operator or owner of the farm makes written application to the county committee on blanks furnished by the County PMA office. This application must be filed in the county office by June 30.

No application is necessary for farms on which wheat was seeded for harvest in either 1951, 1952 or 1953, and the acreage reported to the county office before June 12. Figures for wheat acreage in Randall county have been completed and are being tabulated for reporting to the State office this week.

Eight 4-H Club Boys Are Given Sears Gifts

Saturday eight Randall County 4-H Club boys received registered gifts through the 4-H Club Sears swine program. The boys receiving the gifts are Gene Stocker, Max Hoffman, Bat Wilkinson, Larry Ritchie, Johnny Plank, Ted Lowe, Don Kuehler, and Dale Henry.

Boys receiving the registered spotted Poland China gilt pigs will give one pig out of the first litter produced by each gilt for distribution to other 4-H club boys.

This program has been going on in Randall county for several years. It serves as a foundation for registered breeding stock and many of the hogs of this breed found in this county can be traced back to the 4-H club Sears swine program.

Cummings Buys Office Building

E. T. Cummings, Randall County Auditor and Certified Public Accountant, moved Saturday to his new location in the brick building immediately north of the First National Bank. At present he plans to use all the office space except enough for one office.

Three Prisoners Work Out Fines

Three prisoners were working out their fines last week by helping take care of the courthouse lawn. One of the principal jobs of the trio was that of planting grass seed in the bald areas along the courthouse sidewalks.

J. M. Breittling, courthouse caretaker, said the grass seed would probably be a long time about coming up as the high wind and heat wave kept the ground dry. Such condition may retard the growth of the grass until fall or until there is enough wet weather to germinate the seed.

Over the week-end the prisoners also painted the ground floor of the courthouse. By Monday morning the paint was dry enough to walk over and had a nice looking gloss finish. Breittling said the same kind of paint was put on the concrete floor as was applied three years ago. The paint was selected because of its handsome appearance and long durability.

Ted is one of six boys in Texas who is serving as Junior Leader. He won this all-expense paid trip because of his eight years of outstanding club work in Randall County 4-H Club activities.

Art Miller is the Randall County 4-H Club delegate to the state roundup on the A&M campus this week. Betty Hoffman of Umbarger is the 4-H Club girl from Randall County.

Boy Scouts Win Double-Header at Silverton Sunday

Boy Scouts of Troop 66 journeyed to Silverton Sunday for a double-header baseball game and won both games. The Silverton team came over Saturday for a game of baseball, but the high wind caused officials to cancel the game after a few innings. The Canyon Boy Scouts won the two games by a score of 12 to 8 in the first one and 7 to 6 in the second.

Buzzie Barnhill started on the mound for Troop 66 and pitched three innings. He was relieved by Leonard Miller. James Young filled the catcher's position behind the bat for both games.

When the second game began, Gary Shepherd was the starting pitcher for Troop 66. He was relieved by Mac Boswell. Mac Boswell has been the outstanding slugger for Canyon. In addition, he has done well at his defensive position at first base and on the mound. Buzzie Barnhill doesn't hit a long ball but he gets on base a lot and that is what counts. Other Scouts turning in good performances were Leonard Miller, Roy Hunter, Bobby Joyner, Donnie Ford, Joe Bailey, Jesse Ogle, and Alan Hanks.

Transportation was furnished by Frank Barnhill and J. A. Young. The Boy Scouts are hoping that some of the Cubs will come out and practice baseball with them.

Scouts are also trying to raise money for uniforms for the baseball players. If enough interest develops in the game this will be accomplished. The Scout team has another game scheduled for Saturday afternoon with one of the Amarillo Junior Yucca teams.

Oil in Panhandle Was Subject of Talk at Rotary

Ralph O'Neill, district superintendent of Production of the Phillips Co., Borger, was the Rotary Club speaker Tuesday. Dennis Ford was in charge of the program.

The history of oil since its first discovery in Pennsylvania in 1858, down through the development of the Panhandle from 1900 to the present, was traced in an interesting manner by the speaker. Oil was located in Borger in 1904 by a government surveyor who was seeking a water supply. The first wells were drilled in 1918 and 1921. Early development was handicapped by the lack of storage; lack of transportation; and the low gravity of the oil.

A. D. Borger came to Borger in 1926. He paid $6,000 for 240 acres of land, and within eight months had realized a profit of $100,000. The town of Borger grew to a town of 15,000 persons in eight months. In 1929 there was a clean up campaign when Rangers moved in and took charge. There were 1120 oil wells, with production of 40,000 barrels daily, under most wasteful conditions. Today there are 7,500 wells, drilled at three depths.

Phillips has 7,000 employees in this area, with 97% of them stockholders in the company. The company has the largest inland refinery in the world; the largest gas reserve in the world. The company has done much to convert this cow country to an industrial country.

Sportsmen Meet Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the district courtroom of the courthouse there will be an important meeting for all sports-minded farmers, ranchers and hunters. It's one of the annual meetings of the state Game & Fish Commission for the Panhandle Regulatory Powers Act. Those attending will have an opportunity to help set up the game laws for the coming year.

Cal Lovelace, local game warden, and a state biologist, district supervisor Jim Megert will be on hand to answer questions and help out with the meeting. The game warden said the present laws, new laws, season and bag limits would be discussed.

Lovelace said the meetings were in progress all over the Panhandle area and that those who are interested in our fish and wildlife should be sure to attend. It is their one chance to help make the regulatory laws and after those laws are made the people will not have another chance to have a voice in the laws until the annual meetings next year.

The Dust! She Sure Blowed!!

Saturday evening was a hummer so far as dust was concerned!

Following the drawing on the public square, the wind increased in fury, with a light sprinkle, which did little or nothing to improve crop conditions. Some hail fell in Canyon.

The moisture was heavier to the south of Happy, and about half an inch of moisture was measured in Happy.

To the north of Canyon the wind blew up heavy waves of sand and top soil to such an extent that driving was difficult.

Air Conditioner Sales Hit Peak Early This Year

One thing that May, 1953, has already done is record the hottest and coldest temperatures ever recorded for that month. The late freezes came along just in time to nip many gardens and fruit trees. Then right on the heels of this came the hot weather that made people feel they were smack in the center of July or August.

Merchants around town report excellent sales on air conditioning units. This year the market is from four to six weeks ahead of itself, say the merchants who sell the units. A couple of merchants mentioned that their air conditioning units usually started hitting peak sales about mid-June. This year sales had climbed up to their usual peak about mid-May.

One of the merchants pointed out that folks in this area are lucky to be able to use the economical evaporative cooler. He said this type of air conditioner was practical only where the climate was hot and dry. Down in East Texas where the atmosphere is rather humid, evaporative air conditioners are not so practical as here. People who have air conditioning in these humid atmospheres must use the expensive refrigeration type for best results.

Bloodmobile Unit Gets 86 Pints

When the Bloodmobile quit work at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon it had collected 86 pints of blood. A donor's card will be mailed to all those who gave their blood this time. This card will contain the date they gave blood with their blood type on the card.

The Red Cross said they really appreciated the cooperation they had by the donors. They surely do want to extend warmest thanks to those who gave blood.

The unit may return to Canyon in about six months. This was the first time the Bloodmobile had been here since stopping down at West Texas State College in December. At that time the unit got 87 pints out of 200 pledges.

Although there were only 67 pledges this time there were 86 pints of blood collected. There were 32 people who came in who had not signed a pledge card. A few signed pledge cards who did not show up. A total of 89 persons were tested for blood and three of this number were rejected. One was rejected for having a sore throat; one had been given a typhoid shot earlier in the day, and another had yellow jaundice when he was a small boy.

Randall County Is Short on Sale of Series E Bonds

Randall county is running behind its quota in the sale of Series E Bonds, according to a report received from the U. S. Treasury.

For the first quarter of 1953, there was only 12.19% of the quota for 1953 sold to local citizens. The quota for the year was set at $340,880.75. Total sales for the first quarter was $41,568.75. This decline in sales likewise applies to most of the agricultural counties of the state. Counties which have reached or exceeded their quotas are oil producing counties, or have large cities which are not affected by the decline in business due to the prolonged drought.

Randall county has always exceeded its quota in the sale of E Bonds, and this is the first time that there has been such a material decline in the volume of sales since the quota system was established.

Lewis, general manager of the Southwestern Appliance Company. He went on to say that those attending were attending the biggest sales convention ever held by a private company and the meeting was to take place in the auditorium of Convention Hall on the Boardwalk at the Seashore Resort.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Equalizing Taxes Is Taken Up
By Amarillo Daily Papers

The Amarillo papers are after the Commissioners Court of Randall county for not equalizing taxes as between city and county property. The Court in Randall County sat as a board of equalization recently, but little was done. Therefore the interest taken by the Amarillo papers in trying to force the issue.

A few weeks ago the Court in Randall county called for bids from some person or agency to state a price for doing this work. The prices varied from $4,000 to $40,000. This was too much of a difference, and the whole matter was dropped.

When a group of South Amarillo citizens became incensed because nothing was done, they called upon a well known cattleman to come to their rescue. This man owns land in several counties. In Oldham county he pays taxes at the rate of $10 per acre for grazing land. All land in Randall county is assessed at $5.00 per acre, with irrigated lands increased this year to $10 per acre.

No cost of improvements on farms are considered in Randall county. These improvements are charged in Oldham county, we are told.

At any rate, there is a vast difference in methods of placing values for taxation in the various counties of the state.

Let it be remembered that no matter who sets values, or how carefully the taxing board may consider values, taxation will never please all people. If the Commissioners Court or any other taxation board should be in session every day of the year they could never reach an equitable value on property.

At least we have learned this much about taxation. The only just tax is the one imposed upon the other fellow, and not the one imposed upon us.

We have no idea how this tangle will be solved, but we hope that serious consideration of property will be taken into consideration by all boards of equalization, and this includes the county, the city and the school districts. It is all a ticklish problem.

Poor France Stands At The Bottom of Nations of World

We cannot keep from feeling most sympathetic toward France. Yet, all of us deplore the terrible conditions which make her fate such as it is.

The lawmakers of France can kick out of office the premier, without jeopardizing their office. They have done this 18 times since the war. Yet, the same conglomeration of Socialists and Communists and left wingers control the lawmaking body. They refuse to give up their jobs, while making the premier the goat.

It is unpopular to pay taxes in France. The government is so corrupt that those in control may be bought off for a few francs rather than contribute vast sums to the upkeep of the government.

The commies have control of the situation in France. They continually stir up trouble, and keep the government in an uproar. The Socialists are no better. There are 20 or 30 political parties in that unfortunate country.

France will never pull out of the present dilemma until a strong man arises who can pull the various factions together, and demand a housecleaning of the turbulent factions which are causing all of the trouble.

As we viewed the terrible immoral conditions which existed in France in 1918, we could not keep from realizing that this was not the France of the olden days, when General Fauch spoke his famous words, "They shall not pass."

He was speaking to and of a vastly different group of men who composed the French army of those days.

France is no longer a second rate nation. It has deteriorated to a third rate power, and we cannot expect that it shall improve in the near future.

Ike Stands By His Guns on Demand For A Balanced Budget

President Eisenhower will not be cowed by opposition.

Last fall during the campaign he thought he could reduce taxes by saving money. It now appears that he is going to cut appropriations to the bone, but taxes must remain high in order to meet the expenses of government and to continue an unprofitable war.

Once he has made up his mind, the President is going all out in his fight to keep taxes high until the budget is balanced. By the budget, the President is not referring to the outlandish Truman budget which called for all of the frills possible, but to a sensible budget.

We shall see what we shall see.

The Canyon News tries to print all the legitimate news; you can help by calling in tips and events which you think are being missed.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower is now experiencing the problems and decisions which make life trying, and short.

It seems that today's swim suits would afford enough relief from the heat without going into the water.

One reason most people are half-informed is that they don't know when to listen or whom or what to listen to.

Education is mainly the process of learning what one doesn't know, and getting the desire for knowledge.

Lawmakers Ask For Increase Of $25 Per Day For Sessions

The voters of Texas will vote next year on the proposal to increase legislative salaries to $25 per day for 120 days. After this time in session the lawmakers will receive no pay should they remain in session.

It will be recalled that the voters of Texas have turned down the proposal to increase the pay of lawmakers to $3650 per annum. Under the new proposal the lawmakers would receive $3000 per annum, plus $25 per day for any special session which might be called. It is very unlikely that any session would be able to finish all of the work cut out for it under the present practice of adjourning from Thursday until Monday. Those who stay in Austin and work, rather than return to their homes for the weekend, are entitled to more money than the travelers.

Likewise, it was our sad experience to find so many loafers in the House 25 years ago who refused to attend sessions, but were found eating watermelons, or on the golf courses while the House was trying to transact business.

Members of the legislature are just human beings, and we had as well admit the weakness of a few of the members.

It has been suggested that we need more newspaper men and fewer lawyers among the lawmakers. Perhaps that is true, but just try to elect the news men and see how you come out. Unfortunately, the most serious opposition to the news boys in the legislature comes from the group who works with the papers of their districts.

Coronation Was a Great Show
But Queen Has No More Power

Probably the world will never again see such a spectacle as was staged by the English when Queen Elizabeth II was crowned on Tuesday of last week. Of course she has been Queen since the death of her father, and the coronation makes no difference in the amount of power or the status of the Queen.

The British have little opportunity to put on such shows. The people spent freely of their small savings in order to impress the world of the greatness of the spectacle.

Royalty made the most of the situation. Royalty throughout the world, flocked to London. The number was small to be sure in comparison to the millions of commoners who lined the line of march.

Those who heard, or saw the big show, were thrilled. Even the commies in Russia witnessed the show, without jamming a single view or word. They were evidently thrilled.

Long live the Queen!

Shipping Interests Are Fearful
Planes Will Take the Business

The latest threat to ocean liners is the jet aircraft. Ship owners are worried. They are fearful that the governments of the world will subsidize aircraft and put them out of business.

Which leads all of us to the conclusion that subsidies of every kind should be eliminated. Frankly we never expect to see this. Pressure groups are continuing to put up powerful arguments as to why they should be supported by the government.

We are told of the wonderful trips available by air over the ocean, with hardly a ripple in the airways. While storms may churn the waterways, they fail to reach the high altitude at which planes travel.

While the ship owners may have a just reason for worry, we have plenty of things right here at home to worry about.

Gardens are fun, when the time is available, but unfortunately do not grow untended.

If you do not have a publicity agent, you will have to advertise to get maximum business.

A pretty young bride-to-be spied a copy of Emily Post's book on etiquette in a friend's bookshelves. Thinking to brush up on wedding procedure, she borrowed it.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: CONKLIN R. COONS Defendant, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer before the Honorable 47th District Court in and for Randall County at the Court House thereof, in Canyon, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 6th day of July A. D. 1953, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 23rd day of May A. D. 1953, in this cause, numbered on the docket of said court and styled Farah LaJeanne Coons Plaintiff, vs. Conklin R. Coons Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit:
A suit for divorce on grounds of cruel treatment, which was of such a nature as to render their further living together insupportable as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit. The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Canyon, Texas, this the 23rd day of May A. D. 1953.

her own experience and concluded that casual daters didn't count. The next blow was on proper dress for the groom: pin-striped trousers, top hat and gray suede gloves. Knowing her western-born man would give up the whole idea before he'd submit to such treatment, she turned to the fly-leaf of the book. To her relief, the edition was out of date by several decades.

After consulting some more up-to-date wedding suggestions, however, she still thinks that a little common sense comes in mighty handy. If the bride wants a kiss as a part of the wedding ceremony, a more recent printed source explains, she says to her prospective husband: "If I promise not to get lipstick on your face, will you kiss me at the altar?" Or, to remind him of his obligations with regard to flowers: "Don't you think pink corsages would be nice for our mothers?"

"Never does explain why you can't just come out and talk things over like old friends," the young woman commented wryly.
The only real live wedding consultant we ever heard talk seemed to us to have some foolproof answers. She was editor of a national woman's magazine, and her formula was simple: For good taste, stay within the means of your own family budget, and observe the customs of your own section of the country.

Our personal philosophy has always been that rules have to fit to be binding. Still, all the talk about wedding niceties does reconcile us to the fact that our only daughter is a son.

Lions Speaker Tells Of Religion in Govt.

Morris Lively, Lt. Colonel (Retired) and chaplain at the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo, was speaker at Lions Club luncheon Wednesday. The speaker was brought to the club by Walter H. Juniper, dean of West Texas State. Chaplain Lively spoke on the importance of religion in government.

The speaker started off with a story of George Washington as a child. He mentioned the trials and tribulations Washington had during those crucial days of fighting for independence. Lively then went on to Patrick Henry's immortal speech, "Give me liberty or give me death." He told about Richard Henry Lee starting the move for independence for the Colonies and how after days of debating the question the members of the Continental Congress decided on June 8, 1776, to declare their independence.

Thomas Jefferson was selected to write the declaration and there was much debate before the declaration was accepted on July 2. Two days later, on July 4, 1776, it was signed and the fight for independence was on.

Chaplain Lively said religious breakdown of the nations of the world fell into three categories: atheist, tolerant, and covenant. The atheist, he said, is a nation whose government has no deity and does not believe in God. The tolerant nation is one that merely tolerates religion and the covenant nation believes in God and encourages religion.

The Lions had five guests besides Chaplain Lively and Dr. Juniper. Visiting were Lynn Hulsey, Canyon; D. V. Biggers, Skellytown; Joe Franks, Canyon; and Cole Boswell and W. W. Cooper from Turkey.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

President Eisenhower is being advised that isolationist tendencies are growing so rapidly in Europe and have such strong political appeal that it is uncertain how long American dollars can succeed in keeping the idea of internationalism alive.

Senator Taft Republican Leader in the Senate, is a bit bewildered by cries that the United States is going isolationist after this country. In eight years, has given 40 billion dollars to the outside world in an effort to prove that it's not isolationist.

The Truman-Acheson policy in U. S. foreign relations, a policy that still guides the American Government, is beginning to be seriously questioned by military leaders. A widespread opinion exists among top-ranking military men that the "cold war" gradually is being lost under policies that prevail.

Mr. Eisenhower is discovering little support for the idea that U. S. should take over the war in French Indochina if France decides to pull out of that war, expecting U. S. to take over.

Winston Churchill still is convinced that he can get Dwight Eisenhower into a meeting with Georgi Malenkov even if the Russian gives no prior demonstration of his good faith. Mr. Churchill is working hard at the job of building pressure for a Big Four meeting, probably in Berlin.

A warning by American negotiators, passed along from high sources in Washington, finally convinced the Communists that they would either have to do business on a Korean truce or have the truce talks called off. American officials finally became fed up with endless haggling.

Syngman Rhee, President of Korea, is wholly dependent upon the United States for arms, ammunition and many supplies for his country so he has not really been in a position to challenge decisions made back in U. S.

Senator Frank Carlson, of Kansas, remains one of Eisenhower's closest confidants and advisers. The Kansas Senator makes late-evening visits to the White House that go unannounced, providing the President with grass-roots information that helps in dealing with Congress.

The White House is bringing more pressure and pulling more wires to keep alive the excess-profits tax than to accomplish any other Administration purpose at this time. Effort is taking on aspects of a crusade.

Senator Styles Bridges, Appropriations Committee chairman, has proved that civilian heads of the Defense Department can be bent under pressure. The New Hampshire Senator is to get the air base that he has been seeking for his State.

Harold Stassen, Mutual Security Administrator, is gaining in favor with President Eisenhower. The President likes the way Mr. Stassen comes up with concise, accurate reports on problems and also his willingness to work quietly in the background.

Bets can be had that William McChesney Martin, Jr., Federal Reserve Board Chairman, will be forced before many months to support the market for long-term Government bonds. Some Republicans in Congress already are restive over the tight-money policy that has resulted in bond-price declines.

Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense, is finding it necessary to use a strong hand to keep civilian secretaries and staff chiefs of individual services from breaking into the open with arguments about the wisdom of budget cuts. Air Force officials, privately, are up in arms about cuts ordered by the White House.

Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, whose term as Air Force Staff Chief soon ends, was considered "expendable" and the officer who could afford to criticize the President's plan to cut down on the projected Air Force goal of 143 air wings. General Vandenberg really was speaking for the whole Air Force.

Texas Press Association

AUSTIN: Before leaving Austin, the legislators said to each other, "Goodbye, see you at the special session."

It is expected that Governor Shivers will call them back when the courts make a final decision on the natural gas tax.

If the tax is upheld, the state will have available the money that has been piling up since the tax was passed by the previous legislature, plus a monthly return of some $1 million.

Governor Shivers has predicted that the court test will come to an end in the Fall.

A motor rewound here has its full rated horsepower — the work is superlatively done by specialists and is wholly guaranteed. Regardless of type, size, make — we can service your electric motors perfectly, economically.

Reviewing the session, Governor Shivers commended the legislators as a hard-working lot who had put through about 75 to 85 per cent of the program he requested.

He thus revised upward a previous estimate that only a small fraction of his program was completed.

Lawmakers deserve praise, the governor said, for passing some legislation and for defeating other bills.

It was well, he thought, that no new taxes were passed, no expensive state services were inaugurated, and no punitive measures were taken against either labor or management.

As to legislation passed, the governor thought these measures were good:

Authorizing new tuberculosis hospitals at San Antonio and Harlingen; setting up a stronger water conservation program; establishing a state toll road authority; increasing the pay of state employees $180 per year; toning down the auto safety inspection law; providing three-day jail sentences for driving while intoxicated; and taking steps to study and deal with alcoholism.

The chief executive also thought favorably of these proposed constitutional amendments, to be voted on by the people in November next year:

Permitting Texans in the armed services to vote; authorizing use of a surplus in the Confederate Pension fund for state buildings; boosting the ceiling on state welfare expenditures from $35 million to $42 million; and permitting women to serve on juries.

There were several of the governor's proposals that the legislature failed to put into effect, including:

Revising the election code; congressional and judicial redistricting; raising the money for road building; financing new buildings at Southwestern Medical School at Dallas, the University of Texas cancer research hospital and dental school, the deaf school and the prison system; and providing public school teachers a salary raise.

Increasing the teachers' pay was the hottest and most controversial issue of the session.

Teachers asked for $600 per year additional salary — they got nothing, although a compromise, had they accepted it, would have given them $306.

"It wasn't so much the money," the teachers' spokesmen complained. "It was the principle of the thing."

They said that administration leaders never considered any way of financing the pay increase except by hiking local property taxes.

School people also balked at the administration's insistence that state payments to school supervisors and counsellors be eliminated.

A statement was issued by the Texas State Teachers Association to the effect that it "should not be and has not been in the position of being willing to cripple or sacrifice its school program for the conditional promise of a small salary increase when the principles involved were so far-reaching."

The association said it would continue its fight for salary raises at the next session and pointed out that a special session could be called to deal specifically with this problem.

In addition to the proposed constitutional amendments listed above, these additional ones were passed by the Legislature and will be submitted to the people:

Increasing the pay of elected state officials, including members of the Legislature; giving precinct, county, and district officials four year terms instead of two-year terms; permitting teacher retirement system and state employee retirement system credits to be transferred; forbidding the state to assume any debt on bonds issued to build toll roads; allowing state and local government workers to go under the federal social security plan; and authorizing counties under 10,000 population to keep separate tax assessor-collectors by local option.

Some of these issues are controversial — you'll be hearing more about them as election time approaches.

As the session ended, Governor Shivers' desk piled up with bills passed and sent to him for his signature. He signed 25 of them in one day. These included provisions to:

Permit courts to order compulsory hospitalization of those who use narcotics except under a doctor's order.

Give the University of Texas regents power to lease land on the Southwestern Medical School campus to private research agencies.

Hike from $150 to $200 per month the Confederate pension of Walter W. Williams and his wife, who live near Franklin. Williams is one of the only two Confederate veterans living in Texas.

Set aside $30,000 to prosecute the Rio Grande water fuss with New Mexico.

Give state and local government workers 15 days annual military leave for National Guard or reserve training without loss of vacation time or salary. Members of the Legislature are excepted.

If Governor Shivers and Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey should both leave the state at the same time, the acting governor will be Senator Jimmy Phillips of Angleton.

Phillips was elected president pro tempore ad interim of the Senate. That means he is the presiding officer of the Senate for the time between sessions.

The president pro tem is second in line, behind the lieutenant governor, to fill the governor's shoes in his absence.

Phillips holds the modern filibustering record. Two years ago he spoke for 17 hours and 55 minutes against a bill that would have abolished the state hospital board.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd wants to oust from Texas the "communist-dominated" International Fur and Leather Workers Union of the U. S. and Canada.

Shepperd asked for an injunction against the union and its agent, Emanuel Coulakis, on the grounds that they had not registered with the Texas secretary of state.

Coulakis, the attorney general said, has been attempting to organize the workers of a tanning company of San Antonio.

In line with Shepperd's request, District Judge Charles O. Betts issued a temporary restraining order.

SHORT SNORTS: Frank D. Quinn, chairman of the state parks board, said in a speech here that the tourist business can be the state's biggest — but it is handicapped by a rule against state advertising. "Want a job? The Texas Highway Patrol is looking for new recruits. . . . Draft quota for Texas in July is 1,268 men, smallest since September. . . . You can have a television set in your car. . . . A bill preventing same was found to be unconstitutional."

NEW WAGE FORMULA

The General Motors Corporation has agreed to an improved wage formula to replace the five-year escalator agreement with the United Automobile Workers although that agreement still had two years to run. About 350,000 employees of the corporation will benefit from the new terms, which were determined without a strike threat. These new terms are expected to set a pattern for the rest of the industry, which has more than a million union members covered by escalator clauses.

NEWS LETTER

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS
of the 18th Congressional District

The Pork Barrel Bill

The House moved with rapid speed last week on the appropriations bill for civil functions of the Department of The Army. This is the appropriation bill that has been commonly referred to for a number of years as the "pork barrel" bill. This name finds its source in the fact that moneys appropriated for many of the items in this bill are expenditures providing many benefits to localities and states that are not repaid to the federal government by the respective states or by the particular project constructed.

The greatest expenditures in the bill are for rivers and harbors. The entire appropriation recommended for 1954 by the committee was $415,991,600. Of this amount $398,884,100 was earmarked for rivers and harbors and flood control.

The House added one item of $400,000 for work on the New York Harbor. This was the only addition to the committee's recommendations.

The Truman budget had recommended for rivers and harbors and flood control $661,524,100. The Eisenhower budget was $479,490,100. The House allowed only $399,284,100.

The biggest cut came in general construction. The Truman budget asked for $491,000,000, the Eisenhower budget for $332,000,000, and the House allowed $253,000,000. All other reductions from the Eisenhower budget were less than $1,000,000 except in the general investigations item, where the cut was slightly more than $1,000,000. General investigations are primarily tied in with construction.

Many attempts were made in the House to include projects that were cut out when the committee reduced the Eisenhower budget figure. Most everyone is anxious to get projects in this bill, for the reason that I stated above. The money spent is not repayable to the federal government.

The money that has been sought for construction of the Canadian Dam would not come in this appropriation bill, for the reason that approximately $79,000,000 of the required $85,000,000 for the Canadian Dam project must be repaid to the government.

Only about $6,000,000 in that project could be chargeable to flood control and not repayable to the federal government. The reason that the Canadian Dam funds could not be included in this appropriation bill is because the army engineers would not be authorized under the law to construct a project that could not be justified for flood control or purposes incidental thereto.

Veterans Administration Cuts

The people of this country are evidencing great concern over the possible reduction of hospital and medical services to veterans. They are exactly correct in their righteous indignation about some attempts to deny hospitalization and medical services to these veterans who met their responsibilities with such great courage.

The subject is too involved to undertake an extended discussion in this newsletter, but I can tell you that it is my opinion that this Congress will meet its responsibilities in seeing that these veterans are not subjected to a denial of these services. I sincerely appreciate the many letters that I have received on the subject, and assure all of you that you have an outstanding group in Congress on your side.

Amendment To The Agricultural Act of 1949

I am introducing a bill amending the Agricultural Act of 1949 to permit the Commodity Credit Corporation to sell stored corn at a price determined by the Secretary of Agriculture with the approval of the Board of Directors of the Commodity Credit Corporation, plus reasonable carrying charges.

Purpose of this amendment is to provide a source of feed for the cattle people. Under the present law, the sale of stored commodities is limited to a price of not less than 5 per cent above the current support price of the particular commodity. There is an exception that provides for the sale of commodities that have substantially deteriorated in quality. It is well known that stored corn does deteriorate.

It occurs to me that if much of this stored corn could be sold for use by cattlemen before it deteriorates, at a price in keeping with the going price of livestock, it would not only help to protect the Secretary with the approval of the Commodity Credit Corporation so that when the price of cattle drops far below the comparable price of feedstuff that is protected by support prices, there will be a means by which the Secretary of Agriculture can stabilize and protect the cattlemen.

Otherwise, we can expect bankruptcy of many small cattle people and a resulting decrease in our cattle population. These tragic results would not only affect our section of the country, but would be highly detrimental to the economy of the entire nation.

Memphis, Tenn. — The fox terrier belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerr has made quite a name for himself. When Pepper chases a cat up a tree, he goes up the tree after the cat. After the dog tackled a tree that was a little too high for him, Mr. Kerr built a ladder which Pepper uses to get to the first limb, from which he clambers on up into the tree.

A 50-yard dash with a potato on a spoon! An exciting bit of Americana—but it's not the World's Greatest Potato Race

That's the 2200-mile dash on the Santa Fe with 1,350,000,000 potatoes

Somebody east said, "Pass the potatoes!"

Out in California, the fertile San Joaquin Valley heard them. And look what happened.

Santa Fe started moving 14,000 to 15,000 carloads of potatoes to hungry markets all over the Midwest and East. 36,000 to 40,000 pounds to a carload. As high as 550 carloads per day at peak of harvest. That's more than 1,350,000,000 potatoes. And that's a lot of spuds.

Bag 'em. Load 'em. Roll 'em. And hustle. Somebody east said, "Pass the potatoes!"

From America's largest fleet of refrigerator cars owned by an individual railroad, these yellow

Santa Fe "reefers" are dispatched to the "Potato Capital of the West."

There the cars are cleaned, checked, loaded, switched. And iced fast (a car a minute, if you please). These potatoes can't wait!

In servicing the cars as they speed east, new icing docks at Bakersfield and Needles, Calif., Belen, N. Mex., Waynoka, Okla., and Kansas City work the clock around. Electronically-controlled "hump" yards speed the switching.

SANTA FE PRECISION—SANTA FE SPEED

On-time delivery calls for full-time precision to keep these schedules "on the advertised."

After the potatoes come the wheat... citrus fruits... grapes... melons... and green vegetables all year long—flooding east from Santa Fe country to you. Everything from avocados to zucchini.

It costs Santa Fe millions of dollars to serve you so—and provide you with Super Chiefs, too! But we're proud to say they are earned dollars. Not one penny comes from the taxes you pay.

Leadership

President Eisenhower took the steps this week for which many of us have waited.

He called a halt to repeated Republican old guard efforts to go back to the Harding-Coolidge-Hoover days. He requested Republican leaders to drop the Appropriation Committee's foreign policy amendment — urged rewriting of the Simpson Bill to conform more nearly to his own feeling that the Reciprocal Trade Act should be extended as is — and pressed forward his own world trade views.

President Eisenhower's aggressive action may save these measures. Most Democrats support the President on them.

Cotton Experts

News from the world's cotton markets is that exports of American cotton are running more than 50 per cent below the 1952 level.

This may be a temporary sales slump. But some observers fear it is the beginning of a long-term change in the pattern of marketing Texas, remembering that the depression had its roots back in the 'twenties when our exports started slipping away will watch this situation carefully.

Note: Wheat exports also are falling substantially.

Oil Imports

Oil also is of tremendous importance to Texas. Imports of foreign oil into this country are viewed with continuing concern.

The Administration appears to stand on middle ground. Secretary of the Interior McKay has said the industry must solve the problem through the exercise of "industrial statesmanship."

General Ernest O. Thompson of the Texas Railway Commission has taken a somewhat similar position. He thinks the industry should voluntarily restrict imports. The alternative, he warns, is likely to be some type of Government control. We don't want that.

Lockjaw Cases on Increase As the Summer Advances

Increasing numbers of lockjaw will develop between now and fall. State Health Officer Gen. W. Cox warned today despite known measures for prevention.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, cases jump in summertime because exposures in the form of cuts, scratches, or puncture wounds are more frequent in warm weather when people are out of doors.

The germs of lockjaw are commonly found in soil — especially manured soil. They enter through a skin break and emit a deadly toxin which causes jaw and neck muscles to constrict so severely that jaws involuntarily close, vice-like.

Slowly, the muscle constriction spreads to other body muscles, until the victim is bent like a bow. A fatal case of the disease has been traced to a scratch from a rose thorn.

Lockjaw germs are spore-formers, which means they can live for years outside an animal body. Its life processes lie dormant in a tiny seed-like pod, sitting about on the ground until finally, perhaps through a sliver or nail scratch, it gets back into live tissue.

The wound may heal, but inside, protected as it is from the air, the spore will begin "vegetating" and emitting deadly toxin.

Farmers are especially vulnerable to lockjaw. Dr. Cox cautioned, because the primary source of lockjaw germs is the intestinal tract of farm animals. They're passed onto the ground in animal droppings, easily available for re-entry into a human body when that body is cut or scratched or otherwise wounded.

Exposures to lockjaw are so common that it is mere common sense for everyone to maintain a high level of protection via immunization. Dr. Cox called this method of gaining immunity "simple and convenient." He said immunizing shots should be given children early in life, at the discretion of the family physician.

"You can't go to a doctor with every little scratch," he emphasized, "so the best way to handle it is to take an immunizing series of shots, and keep the immunity level high with periodic 'booster' shots."

Bolton-Cunningham Ceremony Read In Twilight Services Friday Evening

MRS. BILLY VAUGHN CUNNINGHAM

Miss Nancy Don Bolton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis K. Bolton, became the bride of Billy Vaughn Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cunningham in a twilight wedding Friday evening, June 5. Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, read the double ring service in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church.

White gladioli, branched candles against lemon leaves formed the decorative background.

Miss Ann Holt, organist, played an appropriate musical prelude, and "Because" as the candles were being lighted by Melvin Cunningham and Mary Sue Bolton. She also accompanied Miss Bettie Graham who sang "I Love You Truly," "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction with the bride and groom kneeling at the altar on a white satin covered kneeling bench. Traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Ruth Ann Bolton, sister of the bride, as maid of honor wore orchid taffeta with nylon net overskirt, net cape and cap of matching taffeta and net. Miss Frances Cunningham, sister of the groom, wore blue taffeta, Miss Nelda Cunningham, sister of the groom, wore yellow taffeta, Miss Mary Sue Bolton, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid wore Nile green taffeta. All attendants' dresses were identical in style to that of the maid of honor. All their head-dresses matched the bride's. They all carried nosegays matching their gowns in color.

Weldon Hacker was best man. Tommy Gooch, Harold Cunningham, Jr., cousin of the groom, and Melvin Cunningham, brother of the groom, were groomsmen. Tommy Gooch and Harold Cunningham were ushers.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a lovely gown of white French imported Chantilly lace and tulle over bridal satin styled with a nylon drop yoke, basque waist, fitted sleeves terminating in petal points, full skirt of lace scalloped and etched with a deep tulle ruffle. Her veil fell from a wedding cap of French lace and satin. For something old she carried a 24-year-old handkerchief belonging to her aunt and borrowed for the occasion. She wore blue garters for something blue. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift from the groom. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of feathered carnations outlined with angel feathers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bolton chose a navy blue sheer with white accessories and a white corsage. Mrs. Cunningham, mother of the groom, chose navy blue taffeta with pink accessories and a pink corsage.

To honor the couple a reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with white Irish linen cloth. Orchid candles in crystal candle holders flanked the lovely bride's bouquet for the centerpiece. The serving table was laid with a linen cloth and centered with the bridesmaids' bouquets flanked with crystal holders bearing orchid tapers.

Miss Deana Ruth Bolton from Amarillo, cousin of the bride, secured names of guests. Miss Dorothy Neblett played appropriate background music.

Misses Billie Graham, Annette Pond, Laura Smith, Dorothy Cleavinger and Bettie Graham served the cake and punch.

For a wedding trip to South Texas and New Mexico, the bride wore a brown and white faille suit with white accessories, white linen blouse, shoes, purse, and white pill-box hat. Her corsage was white.

After June 10 the couple will be at home at 411 Meredith, Dumas.

Mrs. Cunningham was graduated from Canyon High School with the '53 spring class. She was a member of FTA, FHA, YWA, and the National Honor Society.

Mr. Cunningham graduated from Canyon High School and received his degree from West Texas State in May '53. He was an active member of BSU. He is now employed as staff announcer at KDDD, Dumas.

Mrs. Cunningham was honored with a number of prenuptial showers. Among these was a personal shower given on May 25 in the home of Annette Pond with Misses Billie Graham, Dorothy Cleavinger, and Dorothy Neblett as co-hostesses. The crystal appointed table was centered with an arrangement of gladioli and daisies. Thirty guests called or sent gifts.

On June 1st Mrs. Cunningham was honored with a coffee at the home of Mrs. Renna Bellah with Mrs. Bob Bellah, Mrs. J. C. Bellah, Misses Irene Hicks and Georgia Upfold as co-hostesses.

The serving table appointed with silver was centered with a beautiful grouping of purple daisies. The groom's mother, Mrs. A. M. Cunningham, and the bride's mother, Mrs. L. K. Bolton, presided at the silver service.

The hostesses presented the bride with silver salt and pepper shakers.

Twenty-five guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Boyce Colwell and Sarah Jane left Saturday for Midland to visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O. Franklin and infant, Cyndy Lynn. Mr. Colwell and Sarah Jane returned Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Colwell remained several days.

Sgt. and Mrs. James H. Scott and sons spent Sunday in Stratford in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorel Haile and children. Mrs. Haile will be remembered by many friends in Canyon as Marijo Brown, ex-student of WTS.

Mrs. W. S. Myers and her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Searl Cox and grandson, visited in Amarillo, Lubbock, Plainview, and Umbarger last week. The Coxes left Monday morning for their home in Greenville, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kennedy and son, Don, of Wichita Falls are visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. Dan Usery and Peggy. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Usery have just returned from points of interest in Colorado.

Miss Mary Ann McCollum of McCaulley spent the week-end with her bridegroom-to-be, Rev. Jim T. Pickens. She was a house guest in the home of Mrs. Clyde Warwick while in Canyon. The wedding will take place in July.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boston had as guests last week their granddaughter, Mrs. Herbert Williams. Mr. Williams and two children, Larry Monroe and Nancy Caroline, from Roscoe.

Who Is Owner of "The Mystery Farm" of This Week?

This week's mystery place has a few distinctive features that anyone who has ever been there should have no trouble identifying it. Note the fence about the house, the angled plot in the rear that appears to be a garden and the little house beyond that. The location of the windmill and the barn may be the parts of the place that clench your identification. The owner of the mystery place will get a free glossy photograph by coming by The Canyon News and giving a bit of information for a news story.

OUR NEW TEXAS LAWS

By John Ben Shepperd
Attorney General of Texas

The 53rd Legislature adjourned May 27 after being in session for 78 working days.

The bills which have attracted widespread attention by press and radio will not be discussed; only the important changes in our present laws which have almost escaped notice will be given.

In addition, a breakdown of the overall results of the session will be presented for its informational value.

A number of laws were passed which have a direct effect upon agriculture. For example: cabbage and tomato inspection and stand-

CONTRACTORS' NOTICE OF TEXAS HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

Sealed proposals for constructing 1559 miles of Gr. Strs., Flex. Base & Three-Crs. Surf. Treat. from Wolfen Ave. in Amarillo to jct. US 60 & 87 on Highway No. FM 286, covered by C 803-1&2-4&3, in Potter & Randall County, will be received at the Highway Department, Austin, until 9:00 A.M., June 16, 1953, and then publicly opened and read.

This is a "Public Works" Project, as defined in House Bill No. 54 of the 43rd Legislature of the State of Texas and House Bill No. 115 of the 44th Legislature of the State of Texas, and as such is subject to the provisions of said House Bills. No provisions herein are intended to be in conflict with the provisions of said Acts.

In accordance with the provisions of said House Bills, the State Highway Commission has ascertained and set forth in the proposal the wage rates, for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the work on above named project, now prevailing in the locality in which the work is to be performed, and the Contractor shall pay not less than these wage rates as shown in the proposal for each craft or type of laborer, workman or mechanic employed on this project.

Legal holiday work shall be paid for at the regular governing rates. Plans and specifications available at the office of Byron Reese, Resident Engineer, Amarillo, Texas, and Texas Highway Department, Austin. Usual rights reserved.

ardization and the inspection of citrus fruits will now be administered by the State Commissioner of Agriculture using only Federal funds.

Public grain warehousemen will now be licensed by the State Commissioner of Agriculture.

The sale, as well as the shipping, of nursery stock will be watched closely because of past cases of fraud.

A livestock Commission agent will find that additional requirements are made of him before he may continue his business.

Reorganization laws were passed to weed out deadwood in our government. Ten boards which have not operated for years were abolished, along with two offices which have not been filled for some time.

Seven funds of the Agricultural department were knocked out, but this still leaves 276 separate funds in the State Treasury.

Refund warrants in the State Treasury representing overpayment of fees by individuals may now be cancelled and the money used for State purposes when the person entitled to the money cannot be found after four years.

The law requiring that State department heads be responsible for state property has been modified slightly to make it more workable.

In the field of local government, several changes were made. A tax assessor and collector in smaller counties may maintain a branch office; an independent school district under general law may hire its own assessor-collector; delinquent taxes may be pledged by a school district as security for a loan; and a three-year average will now be used in computing the economic index of a county to determine the amount of State funds to be given to local schools.

Some of the problems that were presented to this session involved changes in the main body of our law—the State Constitution. At least five Constitutional amendments will be submitted to the vote of the people in November of 1954.

As this is written, one more amendment is on the Governor's desk. It would permit Texans in the regular armed forces to vote. Four more are on the way to the Governor.

Our Constitution has been amended an average of three times after each session of the Legislature since it was established as our primary law in 1876. In the Senate, a total of 15 Constitutional amendments were proposed, while the House proposed 46. The five which both Houses passed by a 2/3 vote and which have been approved by the Governor are:

- 1) require women to serve on juries;
- 2) 4 years elective terms of office for local officials;
- 3) use a 5 million dollar Confederate Pension Fund surplus for the construction of a State Court and State office building;
- 4) permit the creation of county hospital districts with taxing power;
- 5) make the teachers' retirement system interchangeable with the retirement system of State employees.

Baruch Advises To Pay Off The Public Debt Of The United States

(The following is an exclusive interview given to Edward H. Sims, representative of The Canyon News, by Bernard M. Baruch)

Perhaps the number one domestic question in the minds of many Americans today is the business outlook, whether it is good or bad. With the government favoring higher interest rates, and "harder" money, one naturally wonders what this change of pace in government will mean for the average citizen's pocketbook.

With this in mind, this newspaper's reporter went to one of the nation's most respected economists—perhaps the most famous of them all—to get the answer. Bernard M. Baruch, the "advisor to Presidents," however, is not making any flat predictions.

Baruch says we are in the midst of a "very confused situation" today, because of government money policies and other factors. The elder statesman does not care to criticize or commend the present administration at the moment and repeatedly stated his refusal to peer into a "crystal ball" to predict future development.

Mr. Baruch says he is not in close enough touch with government economic moves to comment at this time. (He has called on President Dwight D. Eisenhower at least once since this interview.)

But the famous economist does have some advice for Americans. He says we must pay off the national debt, and moreover he does not think such a task impossible. The success of the effort, he says, depends mainly on "how much discipline we are willing to take on ourselves." What about a national lottery, or a national sales tax, to pay off the debt? Baruch is not inclined to favor either of these methods.

And he points out that much of the national debt should have been avoided. Baruch says scores of billions of dollars of the debt could have been avoided in the World War II period had proper anti-inflation measures and controls been put into effect in time. Another unnecessary cost (adding up to billions) — was placed on the shoulders of the taxpayers when the government refused to adopt proper anti-inflation measures as soon as the fighting in Korea began, he says.

Now, with the debt over 260 billions (and costing over six billions in interest each year), there is only one way to reduce it, according to Baruch, and that is for the government to spend less money than it collects. That is the best, and sure, way to reduce the burden. And that is what Baruch favors.

The leading economist, however, would not endorse the hard money policies of the present administration. He does not want to be quoted on that question. He believes the administration's efforts should be given a full chance and probably gave the President the rest of his views on the national economy when they met recently. The President was very likely keenly interested, since Mr. Baruch has a habit of being right in his analysis of the economic situation.

LIVING COSTS

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that living costs, as measured by the Government, edged up slightly between mid-March and mid-April, advancing one-tenth of one per cent during the month. Retail food costs, however, declined a bit, but other consumer costs rose slightly. The index at mid-April stood at 113.7 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

FOOD PRICE SURVEY

A survey by the National Association of Food Chains of the effects of decontrol on 41 key items in seven major cities, indicated that 17 items had declined in prices, eight had remained unchanged, and 16 had increased in cost to the consumer.

John Purroy Mitchel, who was mayor of New York City prior to World War I, made a national reputation as an able public official and might have become president had he not lost his life while serving in the air corps.

A few years ago, your columnist spoke at a convention in Little Rock, Ark., the Arkansas Corbated Bottlers, and in conversation with a Mr. Wagner of Madison, Ill., I learned the circumstances of Mitchel's death. Wagner was in training at the camp where the former New York mayor was serving. He related:

"Mr. Mitchel was a very capable man but was absent-minded and, when he got into an airplane, had to be reminded to fasten his safety-belt. One day he climbed into a single-seater to do some loops but when the plane went into the first loop, he fell out. There had been no one to remind him to fasten his safety-belt."

Absent-mindedness cut short a career which promised much.

He became a great figure in national life, served as a speaker of the House of Representatives and received a majority of the votes in the Democratic convention for the presidential nomination but fell short of the two-thirds vote then required. He was Champ Clark of Missouri.

"Sure and faith it must have," said the proud mother. "Would you believe it, when I received the envelope the gum on it was still moist!"

Randall County Tax Structure Attacked

By BILL BROWN

Globe-Times Staff Writer, in Last Wednesday's Edition

A wide variation in tax evaluation of rural and urban property in Randall county will be the subject of discussion Monday when county commissioners meet in Canyon as a "board of tax equalization."

The Randall county tax roll shows that large land owners — those classed in a farm category — are paying on an evaluation of approximately $5 an acre while the owners of five-room homes in South Amarillo and Canyon pay on evaluations of between $1300 and $1500.

In the past the practice has been to disregard improvements on farm property when setting an evaluation, and for the most part the present evaluation is virtually the same as during the darkest days of the depression.

C. Y. Johnson, commissioner of Precinct No. 4, or South Amarillo, has been leading the offensive for a new tax evaluation system that will tend to even up the load being shared by Randall county real property holders.

Johnson's precinct is now carrying approximately 55 per cent of the real property tax payment for the entire county.

The object behind a revaluation is not to raise taxes, according to County Judge Roy Joe Stevens. "Financially the county is in good shape," Stevens says. "We don't want to raise the taxes, just equalize them."

On April 15—a continuation of the April 13 commissioners' court meeting—Johnson made a motion that the county accept the lowest bid submitted by appraisers to re-evaluate all Randall County property.

The court had advertised for bids and had received approximately 12 answers.

The motion did not carry, however. It died for a lack of a second.

Need for real property tax equalization is evident on examination of the county tax roll, Johnson points out.

Recently 163 acres of land near Umbarger sold for $45,640. The property owner, according to the tax roll, is paying on an evaluation of $5.28 an acre or $890.

In comparison, the owner of a $2,500 five-room house on Tyler street in South Amarillo is paying on an evaluation of $1300.

North of Canyon an 80-acre tract, complete with irrigation, large home and other improvements, is listed on the tax roll at $800. This is based on an evaluation of $10 an acre, somewhat higher than the majority of farm property.

Another example of the tremendous difference found in the tax evaluation involved the property of a Canyon professional man who in 1950, with a nice home on seven acres of land near Canyon, was paying on an evaluation of $3500.

Following the purchase of 115 acres of land adjoining his property, which placed him in a farm owner class, the tax evaluation was cut almost in half. In 1952 it appeared on the tax rolls with an $1800 evaluation.

In South Amarillo, barely past the Potter and Randall county line, on two tracts of land comprising 2.28 acres the tax is set on a $1600 value, or as much as one of the most productive half sections of land in the county.

A section of farm land near Happy had an evaluation for tax purposes set at $2200 in 1950. In 1952 it dropped to $2880 and was valued at $2600 in 1954 through 1956.

Today the same 640 acres is again valued at $2200 for the purposes of taxation.

Supporting the claim of the county's financial stability is the fact that in 1952 approximately $15,700,000 showed on the Randall county tax roll, and it is estimated another million will be added in 1953.

Also supporting the estimate of South Amarillo's 55 per cent payment of real property taxes in the county is the fact that in 1952 South Amarillo residents paid 1300 more poll taxes than the remainder of the county.

For the most part commissioners agree something should be done about equalizing real property taxes in the county. They haven't agreed, however, on what procedure to follow to obtain this equalization.

Johnson has made known his favor of re-appraising every piece of county property to establish either the true market value or real value. This assessment would be made on improvements on the property as well as the property itself.

Other commissioners feel if the adjustments are made they should be made on the land and not on the improvements. Supporting this belief is the feeling the farmer will more than account for the difference with his payment of personal property taxes that includes payment on farm machinery and livestock.

The commissioners are slated to meet Monday as a board of tax equalization whose purpose it is to "not vote to allow any taxable property to stand assessed on the tax rolls of the county at any sum believed to be less than its market value, or if it has no market value, then its real value; that I will faithfully endeavor and as a member of said board will move to have each item of taxable property which I believe to be assessed in a year at less than its true market value, or real value, raised on the tax rolls to what I believe to be its true cash market value, if it has a market value, and if not, then to its real value."

According to Texas Commissioners' Legal Guide book, Randall county commissioners are P. H. Baber, Precinct No. 1; Clarence Beckman, Precinct No. 2; Glenn W. Dowlen, Precinct No. 3; and Johnson.

Bourn-Mullican Double Ring Rites Read in Central Church of Christ

MR. AND MRS. FRANKLIN MULLICAN, JR.

On Friday evening, May 29, at 7:30 o'clock, Joe F. Watson, minister of the Central Church of Christ, read the double ring wedding service making Doris Faye Bourn the bride of Franklin Mullican, Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bourn, Canyon. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mullican, Sr., of Snyder.

Background for the rites was a beautiful arrangement of gladioli flanked by seven branched candelabra. Large baskets of gladioli and pots of climbing liana carried the decoration of the full altar.

As pre-nuptial music, Wayne Hinds and Yvonne Cavender of Amarillo, Thelma Moss of Hedley, Don Stone, Dorothy Brown, and J. B. Roberts of Canyon sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "O Promise Me."

Misses Betty Burrus and Juanelle Burrus, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles. Miss Nancy Bourn, cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor. Miss Gracie Fotheringham, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. All attendants wore baby blue taffeta styled with fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar, cap sleeves and full floor length skirts. Their half mitts and half hats were fashioned from the same material as their gowns. The half hats were edged in seed pearls and ended in orange blossom poms at either side. They carried nosegays of daisies.

Wanda Bourn, sister of the bride, escorted by her twin brother, Wesley, gowned in dress identical to the other attendants, served as flower girl.

Frank Cauldwell of Channing, cousin of the groom, was best man. Billy Joe Campbell of Waco, Jerry Mullican, brother of the groom from Snyder, and Doyle Bourn, brother of the bride, were groomsmen.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was a picture in white satin and lace. Her gown was styled with a lace yoke which extended into a panel down the front and was buttoned with tiny satin covered buttons from the Peter Pan collar to the waist. The lace formed a peplum on the full draped skirt which fell into a chapel train. Her scalloped finger-tip veil of illusion cascaded from a taria of seed pearls. Her orchid bouquet showered with stephanotis and nestled around it a white silk handkerchief that was a gift from her grandfather to her grandmother more than 50 years ago.

Mrs. Bourn chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue lace dress with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias. Mrs. Mullican, the groom's mother, was gowned in aqua linen with navy and white accessories and gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony the couple was honored with a reception in the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Billie Joe Hood, sister of the groom, presided at the punch bowl. Wilda Pitt served the cake and Lilamay Hunter registered the guests at the wedding and at the reception.

For a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico, Mrs. Mullican traveled in a beige linen suit with white accessories and wore a purple orchid corsage.

The couple will make their home at 1401 Seventh Ave., Canyon.

The bride is a spring graduate of Canyon High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society, Future Teachers of America and Future Homemakers of America.

The groom graduated in 1951 from Wink High School, Wink, Texas. At present he is enrolled as a junior at West Texas State College.

The president, Mrs. Harter, reported that nine members of the Canyon Branch attended the state meeting which was held in Lubbock. She called upon Miss Bertie Mae Williams, Mrs. W. L. Smith, Miss Darthula Walker and Mrs. T. V. Reeves for resumes of the sessions there. Others who had attended were Dr. Hattie M. The next meeting will be held late in September.

We go to church... do you?

THE picture is right, the saying is true... "We Go to Church... Do You?" God has set the solitary in families, so that each could help the other do better than he could do alone. We sleep as families, we eat as families, we play as families, we work as families. That means we live as families. Children will find "church going" easy if they have the family as company.

"WE go to church" for our own sakes. We want to live nearer to the ideal. Just as the soil grows sour and barren without sunshine, so must the human heart have its heaven, if it is to keep sweet and rich and productive of good. At church we bow together before the God of forgiving grace, and tell our sins to Him. The good family on the earth may be the unbroken family in Heaven. "We Go to Church... Do You?"

"Mystery Farm" Belongs To Wilson Brothers

The mystery farm above is that of the Wilson brothers. The farm is located four miles east and 1 1/2 miles south of town. The Wilson brothers, Robert P. and William A., bought the place in 1938 from W. A. McSpadden.

The Wilson farm includes 1,120 acres of land and a total of 156 head of cattle comprise the livestock. In the way of additions to the place, the Wilson brothers have built a new home. This was added about three years ago.

Organizations to which the two brothers belong include the Farm Bureau, the Randall County Dairy Herd Improvement Association, and the Holstein-Friesian Association of America. The cattle now being fed are principally Black Angus.

Feed for the livestock consists of silage and bundles. Dry land farming is practiced on the place. William A. "Bill" Wilson has been a reader of The Canyon News for several years. He buys it at the news stands and his favorite parts of the paper are the news stories on the front page and the want ads.

SORRY!

The News was in error in stating that the sister of J. A. Guthrie had died in Stephenville. It was the sister of Dr. John Hicks, former pastor of the Canyon Methodist Church, who died. Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie were in Stephenville to visit in the home of his sister.

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost . . .

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

What we need more of in this town is the kind of animation that had Rex Reeves and Dr. J. B. Roberts in its clutches last week. Even though it was registration week at West Texas State and everyone was working very hard to get several days work done in a matter of a few hours, Mr. Reeves and Dr. Roberts had time to laugh and be jovial. The entire world needs more of the laughing tonic, it's good for what ails you.

Another wonderful event took place at the Cowboy Cafe last week. It was a steak eating session by J. E. Miller's Sunday School class. Some time ago the members of this class paired off in two teams to see which group could make the highest score through attendance of church and Sunday School. Those on the losing end were to treat the winners to a steak. The teams were the evens and the odds and the odds lost. They really provided some delicious steaks for the occasion too.

Those enjoying the feast were Joe Gill, G. C. Crosby, Billy Brown, Sanford Ruthart, Durwood Brown, Wayne Wirt, Crawford Ruthart, Jack London, Jack Grundy, and Mr. Miller. The reason I can report such delicious steaks is because I was there eating one also.

Charlie Donnell has a picture coming up soon that most everyone in this vicinity should see. It's about a small weekly newspaper and tribulations that go along with keeping the newspaper in operation. Title of the picture is "It Happens Every Thursday." Don't miss it if you're interested in what goes on in the backroom and the office of a weekly publication.

Silas Hart has a nostalgic story that is a little off the beaten path. He remembers dates exceedingly well. For instance, last week he said that he distinctly recalled helping build the college that is now West Texas State, then called State Normal, in 1910. That was 43 years ago, 40 years ago, three years after helping build the school Hart entered Summer Normal there. He won his second grade certificate and taught for three years then went back to school and completed his high school work. After teaching and attending school for about ten years Hart finally took his degree in 1923. The good old days when you could teach one year and attend high school the next have faded just as permanently as the old hand-winding phonograph.

If you want to see a really good comedy don't miss the production now running at the Branding Iron Theatre. Title of the play is "Two Blind Mice," and it will continue through Friday night. For reservations call 316. Adult, college, and high school tickets are 75 cents and grade school children's tickets are 25 cents. Setting of the play is Washington, D. C.

Mr. Moore said that the special setting of the play was the work of Carl Michell, who recently completed two years in the drama school at Yale University. Carl returned recently and was met in Amarillo for some four carloads of Palo Duro Players. The entire group had a joyous session of singing songs and just being jovial.

Land owners and others interested in wild life and sports should make it a point to be at the court house tomorrow evening for the meeting that is to be conducted there. Game Warden Cal Lovelace wants everyone there who is interested in good hunting and also the conservation of our wild life and fish.

Famous last words as the party was breaking up, "I gotta drive, I'm too drunk to walk."

One way to avoid trouble and assure safety is to breathe through your nose, it keeps your mouth shut.

A South Carolina welding shop hung out a sign which read, "We mend anything broken except hearts and promises."

A lot of people who never took a music lesson in their life do a lot of fiddling around.

STATE DEPARTMENT CUTS

The State Department faces a payroll cut of 241 employees in this country and 350 abroad by July 1. In addition, a reorganization plan which would take the "Voice of America" and the Point 4 Administration out of the State Department, reducing it by more than thousands of personnel, is under serious consideration.

SPENDING CUT

Senator Robert A. Taft believes military expenditures can be cut by about $4,000,000,000 this year and another $10,000,000 next year. He feels that "the elimination of waste" would permit reducing the military budget to $47,000,000,000 for 1953-54.

INCOME DIPS

Present prospects are that the Federal Government's income this year will be "substantially below" the $63,700,000,000 estimate by President Truman. If these prospects materialize, the new administration's problem of balancing the budget will be made more difficult.

The word "lynch" comes from the name of Charles Lynch.
